Quoting Florida State Basketball

"It may come as a surprise to even the most ardent ACC fan, but a win over Florida State over the past decade has been nearly as valuable as a win over Duke and North Carolina. In the past nine-year span, FSU ranks third among all ACC teams in both overall wins (193) and conference wins (62) behind only the Blue Devils and Tar Heels."

Jerry Ratcliff
Charlottesville Daily Progress

"Florida State is a dangerous team. When they play with a sense of urgency from the get-go, they have the scoring ability and they have the mindset to beat a lot of great teams."

Jay Williams
ESPN

"Aaron Thomas has become one of the really effective offensive players in the Atlantic Coast Conference. When he scores like that (24 points against Virginia Tech), Florida State is pretty tough."

Dan Bonner
ACC Network

"When Aaron Thomas begins to light up, he will make a big difference for the Seminoles. No. 25 in the Garnet and Gold is a big time talent. If you are a Florida State fan and you are wondering about your future, trust me, 25 is your guy."

Tim Brando
ACC Network

"Florida State is big, they are athletic and they can get up and down the floor in transition."

Jay Bilas
ESPN

"Aaron Thomas is an outstanding player. He is a terrific defender, good in transition, has improved his mid-range game and his range. He's the real thing. He is going to get better and better."

Jay Bilas
ESPN

"I really think this big kid (Boris Bojanovsky) is going to be a very, very good player."

Dino Gaudio
ESPN

"Okaro White was a good player in his first two seasons at Florida State, but now he's developing into his own. At 6-foot-8, he is athletic and defends well. He moves like a small forward, is agile and able to drive and shoot from the outside. But he also has the skills of a power forward, with the ability to create point in the low post."

Bob Ferrante
Fox Sports

"Florida State is as big as anybody in the country. They are a very dangerous team, an athletic tea."

Brad Brownell
Clemson University

"I've coached a lot of years, and I haven't seen a team (Florida State) that efficient with that type of length with their guards."

John Beilein
University of Michigan

WHITE SETS SCHOOL RECORD

Senior Okaro White played in his school record 139th game against Minnesota in the semifinals of the NIT. He set the school record of 137 career games played against Georgetown when he broke the Florida State record of 136 games held by former teammate Luke Loucks (2009-12). Coincidentally, White and Loucks were teammates at Florida State (for two seasons, 2010-11 and 2011-12), helped the Seminoles win an ACC Championship and were teammates at Clearwater High School in Clearwater, Fla. in 2008 and 2009.

Earlier during the 2013-14 season, Devon Bookert added to the Seminoles' legendary play in late game situations as he made a floater with 0.5 seconds remaining on the clock to give the Seminoles a 62-60 victory over Northeastern. Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer – one of the all-time greatest late game shooters – made six buzzer-beaters during his career (two during the 2011-12 season and four as a senior during the 2012-13 season) while Ian Miller made one against Virginia and then Bookert became the latest member of the Seminoles to continue to spin late-game magic.

Jacksonville 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State opened its 12th season under coach Leonard Hamilton with a 91-67 victory over Jacksonville at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Senior Okaro White led five Seminole double-figure scorers with 18 points and 11 rebounds and Florida State limited the Dolphins to 31 points on 37-percent shooting in the second half. FSU's sophomore starting backcourt of Devon Bookert and Montay Brandon combined for 31 points on 10 of 19 shooting. Game 4 -- Florida State 85,
No. 10/10 VCU 67

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico - Ian Miller scored 22 points and Devon Bookert added 18 to help Florida State past No. 10 VCU 85-67 at the Puerto Rico Tip-Off. Montay Brandon added 14 points and 11 rebounds. Miller's 22 points was a career-high and his third straight game in double-figures. He said cutting down on the turnovers is a work in progress. Treveon Graham had 14 points to lead the Rams who were denied their first 4-0 start since the 1993-94 season. Florida State lost in overtime to Virginia Commonwealth in the Sweet Sixteen of the 2011 NCAA tournament. There would be no repeat this time as the Seminoles took control late in the first half and then used an 11-0 spurt to open the second half. VCU also came in averaging more than 80 points per game and it made for a pace that was rapid from the outset. The Rams couldn't make shots, though, shooting just 29 percent for the game. They trailed by 30 late in the second half.

of the key at the buzzer, but it bounced harmlessly off the backboard. Aaron Thomas had 16 points to lead Florida State, followed by Robert Gilchrist with 12. The Seminoles trailed for much of the game before taking their first lead with just under 14 minutes left in the game, then had to fight several final charges by the Huskies. Eatherton finished with 21 points and 15 rebounds, his third double-double of the tournament. Reggie Spencer and David Walker each added 13 points. Florida State took its first lead of the game at 13:43 on a basket by Robert Gilchrist that made it 41-39. But the Huskies kept attacking the Seminoles' pressure and got a dunk by Derrico Peck to nudge back in front 50-46 with 7:49 remaining. The Seminoles came right back on two free throws by Michael Ojo, a steal and layup by Montay Brandon, and a driving layup by Ian Miller to go back ahead by a basket at 52-50. It stretched out to 58-52, but Florida State soon lost Okaro White to his fifth foul at the 2:32 mark. The Huskies took advantage and cut the lead to a basket on their next trip down the floor on another dunk by Peck. They then tied it at 58 in on a pair of free throws by Eatherton with just over a minute to play. Florida State called timeout and took the shot clock down before getting Miller free for a short jumper. It rolled out, but Brandon was there for the tip to put the Seminoles back up. Walker was fouled on the subsequent inbounds play and then tied it again with two free throws to set up Florida State's final possession.

Game 7 -- No. 13/15 Florida 67, Florida State 66

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - Ian Miller's half-court shot hit the back of the rim as time expired and the Florida State men's basketball team fell to No. 15 Florida, 67-66. The Seminoles now have a blowout victory over then-No. 10 VCU, an overtime loss to then-No. 14 Michigan and this near-victory over the Gators in the young 2013-14 season thus showing a tremendous amount of improvement since last year. The Seminoles got more than half their points off the bench at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. Miller poured in 13 points, Aaron Thomas had 12 and Michael Ojo finished with 10. Like Ojo, 7-footer Boris Bojanovsky had a strong game, scoring a career and team-high 14 points on a perfect 6-of-6 shooting from the field. Bojanovsky also had two blocks. Okaro White added nine points and two blocks of his own. The Seminoles had just 12 turnovers offensively. For Florida, Case Prather finished with 19 points and Michael Frazier II had 17. The Gators shot 38 percent compared to FSU's 42-percent clip. UF had 15 assists to Florida State's 10. The 'Noles trailed 31-28 at the half but battled back and tied the score at 66-66 with 28 seconds remaining on the clock. FSU forced a missed shot on UF's final possession but were called for a foul on the Gators' offensive rebound and Dorian Finney-Smith hit one of two free-throws before Miller's desperation heave nearly found the bottom of the net from half court.

Game 8 -- Minnesota 71 Florida State 61

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. - Okaro White had 16 points and eight rebounds and Ian Miller added 16 points and seven assists off the bench, but the Seminoles lost to Minnesota 71-61 in the 15th Annual ACC/Big 10 Challenge. Florida State shot 46.5 percent, but turned the ball over 17 times and missed 10 free throws in a foul-filled game. The Gophers led 52-42 midway through the second half, overcoming woeful shooting with some tough defense and a couple of three-point plays from Austin Hollins and Malik Smith to build the cushion. The Seminoles didn't attempt a shot for the first 3:07 of the second half as the turnovers kept coming. But Florida State hung around, hitting the shots they did take and clamping down on defense themselves to cut it to 57-53 on a lob from Miller to White with under six minutes to go. The lightning quick senior scored on two coast-to-coast drives and the Seminoles chipped away at the foul line to cut the deficit to six points at halftime. The Golden Gophers grabbed 13 offensive rebounds against the bigger Seminoles to help them bounce back from a disappointing showing at the Maui Invitational. The Gophers only turned the ball over six times and hit seven 3-pointers to overcome 34 percent shooting.

Game 9 -- Florida State 77, Jacksonville State 53

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The Seminoles shot 54.5 percent from the floor, scored 28 points in the paint and turned 16 Jacksonville State turnovers into 27 points, cruising to a 77-

53 victory at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Okaro White and Boris Bojanovsky led four Seminole double-figure scorers with 17 and 15 points, respectively. Montay Brandon added 14 points and Aaron Thomas chipped in 12. The Gamecocks were largely unsuccessful in their attempt to control the tempo after the Seminoles used a 20-4 first half run to open up a 19-point lead, then sealed the win with spurts of 10 and 11 unanswered points in the second half. There was little doubt about the outcome after the Seminoles carried a 37-20 lead into the locker room at the half. Florida State led 10-7 before consecutive 3-pointers by Brandon and Jarquez Smith triggered a 10-0 run. The 7-foot-3 Bojanovsky scored FSU's next six points with two free throws, a 15-foot jumper and a layup off a Devon Bookert feed to push the Seminoles' lead to 22-9. White took over from there with consecutive dunks - on an offensive rebound and a pass from Ian Miller - before Brandon contributed a pair of free throws. White's second offensive rebound basket in an 8-0 run pushed the Seminoles' lead to 30-11 - their largest of the opening half.

Game 12 -- Florida State 67
Charleston Southern 59

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Sophomore swingman Aaron Thomas scored 14 of his game-high 19 points in the second half on an array of drives and dunks, leading the Seminoles to a 67-59 victory over Charleston Southern. With its fourth consecutive victory, Florida State closed its non-conference schedule on a high note heading into the Jan. 4 Atlantic Coast Conference opener against Virginia. The Seminoles countered the Buccaneers' 10 3-pointers with a dominating 44-10 scoring advantage in the paint. Sophomore point guard Devin Bookert delivered a career-high nine assists to go along with a game-high seven rebounds. Playing for the first time in nine days, the Seminoles needed all of the easy baskets they could muster as they were just 4 of 18 from behind the 3-point arc. By contrast, the Buccaneers scored 30 of their 59 points from beyond the arc. Ultimately, the Seminoles' inside strength and second half defense - CSU shot just 33 percent from the floor after the break and 36 percent for the game - proved to be too much. Florida State turned 17 Bucs' turnovers into 23 points. The Seminoles built a 30-22 halftime lead by pounding the ball inside against the under-sized Buccaneers to the tune of a 20-4 points in the paint advantage.

Game 13 -- Virginia 62,
Florida State 50

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Justin Anderson scored 16 points and Akil Mitchell added 11 points along with 13 rebounds to lead Virginia to a 62-50 win at Florida State in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both schools. Virginia jumped to an early 6-0 lead and never trailed. The Cavaliers led by as many as 15 in the opening half and 22 in the second half. Capitalizing on a 20-2 scoring advantage off Florida State first half turnovers, Virginia built an early 28-13 lead on its way to a 30-17 cushion at the midway break despite losing the services of scoring leader Joe Harris early in the game. Anderson and freshman London Perrantes took up the scoring slack for the Cavaliers with 10 points combined in the opening half. Perrantes finished with 14 points and teammate Malcolm Brogdon added 11. Harris played less than three minutes without taking a shot before being injured during a scramble for a loose ball. Florida State went the opening five minutes without a score until Okaro White's 3-point shot from the side. White was Florida State's lone double-digit scorer with 15 points.

Faust added 14. The Seminoles were 16 of 24 from behind the arc after hitting 10 in the previous four games combined. The 16 3-pointers were the third-most in school history and the most by Florida State in ACC play. Okaro White scored 15 and Aaron Thomas finished with 14. Montay Brandon added 13 points and eight rebounds. The Seminoles entered the game shooting 31.2 percent from three-point range and ranked No. 13 in the ACC. That team was nowhere to be found as Florida State hit 6-of-15 attempts in the first half. Devon Bookert struck first with the game's opening three points from the left wing. Then it became the White and Miller show during a 20-4 run where Florida State took a 37-19 lead. Bookert ended a Maryland 7-0 run that left the Terrapins trailing 17-15 with a triple from the right bend. White scored the next five with a strong left-handed lay-up off a dribble-drive then knocked down a 3-pointer from the wing. Miller followed with a long-range bucket from the top of the key on the next possession and hit another 3-pointer from the wing for Florida State's next points. White, Miller and Thomas took turns for the next three before it was Miller's turn again. That was six consecutive three-point baskets for the Seminoles.

Game 16 -- Florida State 63 Miami 53

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Florida State scored 13 consecutive points over the final four minutes to pull away from the Miami Hurricanes 63-53. Miami missed six shots in a row during the decisive stretch and went 3 1/2 minutes without a point. The Seminoles made their final six shots, and also went 8 for 8 from the free-throw line down the stretch. Florida State won its third game in a row. The 14th and final lead change came when Okaro White's two free throws put Florida State ahead to stay, 52-51. Garrus Adams then blew a dunk for the Hurricanes, and that was their last chance to regain the lead. Ian Miller's 3-pointer made it 57-51, and he added two free throws in the final minute to help seal the win. Aaron Thomas led the Seminoles with 12 points. Devon Bookert and Boris Bojanovsky added 11 each. Bookert made three 3-pointers for the Seminoles, who went 7 for 15 from beyond the arc after sinking 16 3-pointers in Sunday's win over Maryland. Florida State went 14 for 17 from the free-throw line, while Miami went only 2 for 6. Miami missed 19 of 28 3-point tries. There were no fast-break points, reflecting the methodical pace with both teams playing stingy zones that forced a lot of long possessions and outside shots. Miami senior Donnavan Kirk shot 9 for 12 and scored a career-high 21 points. Rion Brown also had 21, but the rest of the team shot 1 for 15 from 3-point range. The Hurricanes missed 13 of their first 17 shots, and the Seminoles led for most of the opening half, building an advantage of 18-11. James Kelly's basket put Miami ahead for the first time, 21-20. Kirk beat the final buzzer with a basket for a 28-24 lead. Brown's back-to-back 3-pointers gave the Hurricanes their largest lead at 43-38 midway in the second half.

Game 17 -- Virginia 78, Florida State 66

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - The Florida State men's basketball team's three-game conference winning streak came to an end with a 78-66 loss at Virginia. Similar to the first meeting between the two programs, Florida State struggled protecting the basketball. The Seminoles committed 11 first-half turnovers that led to a 45-26 disadvantage at the break and finished the game with 18 giveaways -- a statistic that counteracted the fact the Seminoles outscored the Cavs in the second half. The Seminoles shot well from the field, hitting at 45.7-percent mark. Okaro White was responsible for five of the team's makes on six shots and the senior finished with 15 points, seven rebounds and three blocks. Aaron Thomas continued his strong play off the bench, posting 15 points of his own to go along with five rebounds and four assists. Devon Bookert was the third FSU player in double figures with 12 points, five rebounds and two assists.

Game 18 -- Florida State 76, Notre Dame 74

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Ian Miller hit a floater in the lane with four seconds remaining to give Florida State a 76-74 win against Notre Dame in their first meeting as Atlantic Coast Conference opponents. Aaron Thomas scored 20 points in his first start of the season as Florida State held on. Miller finished with 11 points and the biggest bucket of the game. Teammate Okaro White chipped in 12 points and 11 rebounds. Eric Atkins led Notre Dame with 24 points while teammate Garrick Sherman finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Florida State shot 58 percent from the floor and had a 10-point lead with 7:55 left. Notre Dame's Pat Connaughton hit a layup with 34 seconds left to tie at 74-74. Then it was Miller time. The Seminoles took a time out and left Miller isolated at the top of the key while the Fighting Irish sat in a zone. Miller passed the ball twice and got it right back before driving into the teeth of the defense and flipping up a floater in the paint to win the game with 4 seconds left.

Game 20 -- NC State 74
Florida State 70

RALEIGH, N.C.- T.J. Warren, the ACC's leading scorer, totaled 30 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead North Carolina State over Florida State 74-70. The Wolfpack held on at the end after Warren fouled out with 1:36 remaining and his team holding a 72-69 lead. Florida State's Okaro White made two of four free throws but N.C. State got a tip in by Desmond Lee (11 points, and five of the Pack's final seven) with 12.1 seconds left to preserve its third straight win. White led Florida State with 20 points, Ian Miller added 17 and Aaron Thomas chipped in 12. The Seminoles shot 43 percent, 7 of 19 from beyond the arc. N.C. State led 39-33 at the break behind Warren's hot hand. He scored 15 of N.C. State's first 24 points and the Wolfpack led by as many as seven. Warren ended up with 20 points before intermission. The Wolfpack maintained their lead for the first 9 minutes of the second half, pushing it to as much as eight at 44-36 on a Lee drive, despite losing the services of 7-1 center Jordan Vandenberg, who picked up his third foul just 1:30 into the second half. Florida State started taking advantage of its size, driving the ball inside to White. However, it was a 3-pointer by Miller that gave Florida State its first lead, 56-54, with 10:28 remaining. Guard Tyler Lewis and forward Kyle Washington hit jumpers to put the Wolfpack up by two at 61-59. However, Warren picked up his fourth foul with 6:58 remaining and went to the bench with his team trailing 62-61. Vandenberg replaced Warren and buried two dunks, the second coming after Lee's three-point play, as N.C. State led 72-67 with 3:17 left. Florida State used its size advantage in the first half, especially with Vandenberg out with foul trouble and backup Bjeejay Anya sent to the sideline with an apparent right leg injury with 13:39 left in the half. White scored five points and helped the Seminoles pull into a 28-28 tie with about 4 minutes left in the half.

Game 21 -- Clemson 53
Florida State 49

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - K.J. McDaniels scored 26 points as Clemson defeated Florida State 53-49 on the road in Atlantic Coast Conference action. The Tigers survived a slow-moving defensive battle in which both teams failed to shoot 40 percent from the floor most of the game. Jaron Blossomgame scored 10 points and Jordan Roper added eight for Clemson. McDaniels was one-point shy of his career high and his three 3-pointers tied the second-most he's hit all season. The Tigers finished shooting 43.2 percent from the floor after shooting 28.6 percent in the first half. Florida State dropped its third consecutive game as Okaro White was held to nine points. Ian Miller, who entered the game as the Seminoles' leading scorer, suffered a sprained ankle in the first half and did not return. Aaron Thomas scored a team-high 13 points while Florida State shot just 34 percent (16 of 47) from the floor.

Game 22 -- Florida State 70,
Virginia Tech 50

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Aaron Thomas hit a career-high six 3-pointers and scored 24 points to lead Florida State to a 70-50 victory over Virginia Tech in ACC action. Thomas warmed up in the second half with a stretch of three consecutive 3-pointers to give Florida State a 15-point lead. Okaro White finished with 15 points and eight rebounds as the Seminoles played without leading scorer Ian Miller (ankle). Will Johnston scored 12 points for Virginia Tech while Cadarian Raines added 13. The Hokies entered the game as the worst shooting team in the conference with a field goal percentage of 37.3 in conference play. They shot 34 percent in the loss. Florida State coach Leonard Hamilton changed the starting lineup Wednesday, sitting point guard Devon Bookert and center Bojanovsky in favor of Aaron Thomas and Michael Ojo. The start was Ojo's first of the year and the second for Thomas. Miller sprained his ankle in a loss to Clemson last week. The lineup change -- and a slower pace -- equated to the Hokies missing more shots (12) than Florida State attempted (10) in the first 11 1/2 minutes of the game. Field goal attempts, however, didn't matter against struggling Virginia Tech. The Hokies shot 29 percent in the first half and trailed 31-20 at halftime. Florida State used a 9-2 run to the close the first half and extended its largest lead of the game to 11. The run was keyed by the rare five-point play when Montay Brandon hit a 3-pointer as Jarquez Smith was fouled near the basket. Smith then hit both free throws.

Florida State 71

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Seth Allen scored 21 of his career-high 32 points in the decisive first half, and Maryland beat Florida State 83-71. Playing in his 12th game of the season after being sidelined with a fractured left foot, Allen went 11 for 15 from the floor and 7 for 10 beyond the arc in topping his previous career best of 21 points. The 6-foot-1 sophomore guard also had four rebounds and two assists. Dez Wells scored 15 and Jake Layman added 12 for Maryland which avenged a 24-point defeat at Florida State last month.

Game 25 -- Florida State 67,
Wake Forest 60

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Ian Miller came off the bench to score a career-high 25 points, Aaron Thomas snared a career-high 14 rebounds to go with his 19 points, and Florida State came back to beat the Demon Deacons 67-60 at Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum. It was Miller, a senior guard, whose 3-pointer with 2:12 left gave Florida State a 61-55 advantage and sent the fans toward the exits. Thomas added a pair of free throws in the final minute to end any doubt about the outcome- two of his 12 points in the second half. The Seminoles earned Saturday's win thanks to an offense that attacked the interior in the second half and a dominant rebounding performance. After making only 26.9 percent (7-of-26) of its shots from the field in the first half, Florida State shot a blistering 64 percent in the second half (16-of-25). The Seminoles outrebounded Wake Forest 41-27, and of FSU's 67 points, 48 came either in the paint or at the free throw line. Wake Forest took control early with a 12-0 run, as guard Coron Williams scored seven quick points to push the Deacons to a 21-6 lead. The advantage grew to as many as 16 points at 24-8 on a Tyler Cavanaugh 3-pointer. But FSU responded, getting back to within 29-23 by halftime. Its 12-2 spurt was fueled by a momentum-altering technical foul called on the Deacons' Devin Thomas. Florida State scored the game's next eight points to begin its turnaround.

Game 26 -- North Carolina 81,
Florida State 75

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Kennedy Meeks scored a career-high 23 points for North Carolina while Marcus Paige chipped in 20. Ian Miller made his first start of the season and led the Seminoles with 22 points, including five 3-pointers. His hot shooting out of the gate helped give Florida State a 21-6 lead. Montay Brandon finished with 18 points and Aaron Thomas added 16. North Carolina started just 2 for 13 from the field, but closed the first half with a 27-15 run with Meeks taking over inside. Florida State's size, Okaro White, Michael Ojo, Boris Bojanovsky, played a combined 17 minutes in the first half because of foul trouble and Meeks stayed aggressive. He scored 13 points in the first half, including the last eight North Carolina points before the half. Paige scored 16 of his 20 points in the second half as the Tar Heels continued to walk down the lead. Nate Britt hit a baseline jumper to give North Carolina its first lead of the game at 57-55 with 10:05 left to play. The Tar Heels led 70-69 when J.P. Tokoto came up with a loose ball and turned it into an easy two-hand dunk. Meeks then put in a layup off a Paige dribble-drive and dish to go up 74-69.

Game 27 -- Florida State 71,
Pitt 66

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - Okaro White scored 22 points and Florida State played stifling defense to beat Pittsburgh 71-66. Ian Miller added 19 points and Aaron Thomas scored 14 for the Seminoles. Lamar Patterson led Pitt with 22 points. Florida State led 37-31 at halftime. After making 13 of 24 shots in the first half, the Seminoles started the second half 1 for 11 from the field and went 7 1/2 minutes without a field goal. Despite those struggles, Florida State never lost the lead. Pitt's own offensive problems during that stretch were the reason for that. The Panthers could only manage two field goals during the Seminoles' drought. They briefly tied the score at 42, but the Seminoles quickly regained control of the contest with back-to-back dunks by White, who was 7 for 13 from the field and also grabbed eight rebounds. Pitt came back to tie the score again at 48, but the Seminoles made the big plays down the stretch. White scored nine points in the final 6:50, including a 3-pointer as the shot clock expired for a 58-52 lead that took the air out of the Panthers' sails. The Seminoles used an 11-1 run midway through the first half to begin to pull away from the Panthers. The score was tied at 18 when the Seminoles held the Panthers without a field goal for almost 5 minutes. Miller scored five of his 12 first-half points in that stretch. White gave Florida State its biggest lead of the half at 29-19 with 4:07 to go before intermission.

Georgia Tech 71

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Devon Bookert scored 16 points off the bench, going 4 for 4 on 3-pointers, as Florida State defeated Georgia Tech 81-71. Okaro White finished with 18 for Florida State as Aaron Thomas added 15. Montay Brandon grabbed a game-high and career-high tying 12 rebounds. Georgia Tech lost its fourth consecutive game. Robert Carter Jr. scored 20 points and snatched six rebounds while Trae Golden chipped in 16 points. Daniel Miller finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds. The Seminoles used two bursts in the first half to gain control of the game, but allowed a late Georgia Tech run to close the gap to 35-31 at the break. Ian Miller, who finished with 15 points, highlighted an 11-0 run with consecutive 3-pointers after Florida State fell behind 11-6. The second came in transition after Miller gave up the ball with a pass between his legs, got it back and hit a step-back 3-pointer as the defender fell to the ground. Miller started the second run, a 9-0 stretch, with a long jumper before a pair of buckets from Boris Bojanovsky and Florida State took a 26-14 lead on a Jarquez Smith free throw. Georgia Tech responded with a 17-9 stretch to close the gap before the half. The Seminoles opened the second half with a 15-7 run that the Yellow Jackets never recovered from. Florida State didn't settle for jump shots and connected on 22 of 25 free throw attempts in the second half that proved too much for Georgia Tech. The Seminoles shot 61.1 percent from the field after halftime.

Game 31 -- Florida State 67, Maryland 65

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Boris Bojanovsky took a pass from Okaro White and threw down a dunk with 0.4 seconds left to lift Florida State past Maryland 67-65 in Thursday's second round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament. Bojanovsky's dunk capped a tense final two minutes that saw Maryland fight back from an 11-point deficit and twice tie it. But the final score advanced the ninth-seeded Seminoles and ended the eighth-seeded Terrapins' long run in the ACC as it heads for the Big Ten this summer. With the seconds ticking down, Ian Miller sent a pass into the post for White, who immediately flipped the ball to a waiting Bojanovsky on the left block for the winning score. Bojanovsky's basket capped a huge performance for the sophomore big man, who finished with 12 points and a career-best 12 rebounds. He also came through at the line, hitting two free throws with 36.2 seconds left after Maryland had fought back to tie the game at 63 on Jake Layman's transition dunk with 1:49 left. Miller finished with 17 points to lead the Seminoles. Florida State shot 48 percent for the game, including 54 percent after halftime. Dez Wells scored 18 points to lead Maryland including two free throws with 15.1 seconds left to tie it after Bojanovsky's free throws.

Game 36 -- Minnesota 67
Florida State 64 (OT)

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Maurice Walker made six free throws in overtime, and Minnesota held off Florida State 67-64 to reach the NIT title game at Madison Square Garden. Austin Hollins and DeAndre Mathieu scored 17 points apiece for the Golden Gophers who overcame Devon Bookert's tying 3-pointer at the end of regulation. Florida State was led by a pair of seniors who played their final college game. Okaro White had 17 points and 12 rebounds for the top-seeded Seminoles. Reserve guard Ian Miller also scored 16 and missed a 3 at the overtime buzzer that would have tied it. Bookert scored 13 points for Florida State, including its last seven in regulation and first two in the extra session. The Gophers held on despite going 0-for-5 from the field in OT. Florida State trailed by 15 with 6 1/2 minutes left in the opening half before chipping away at the deficit. Thomas tied it at 45 on a free throw with 8:16 remaining in regulation, but Austin Hollins countered with a 3-pointer to put Minnesota back in front. White hit two free throws, made a basket inside and then gave the Seminoles their first lead at 51-50 on two foul shots with 4:10 to play in the second half. But the Gophers scored the next two baskets and were up 60-57 with 7.4 seconds left when Malik Smith went to the foul line with a chance to just about seal it. He missed both shots, and Bookert dribbled up the court, cut to his right and drained a 3 that tied it at 60 with 0.3 seconds to go. The Gophers went 7-of-14 on 3-pointers in the first half as compared to 1-of-9 for the Seminoles and scored 18 points off 11 first-half turnovers by Florida State.
