

- The Seminoles earned their 11th straight victory and in the process tied the program record for consecutive wins with the 1969-70 season when Florida State posted 11 victories from Jan. 9-Feb. 14, 1970.
- Florida State improved to 6-1 on the season as a ranked team, picking up its second victory in the ACC as a ranked team.
- The 3-0 start in Atlantic Coast Conference play marks the first time since the 1988-89, when Florida State was a member of the Metro Conference, that the Seminoles were 3-0 in conference action.
- Terance Mann, who recorded a career-high 22 points and a game-high nine rebounds, led the Florida State offense by hitting 7-of-11 from the floor, which included a pair of 3-pointers, and 6-of-8 at the free throw line.
- Mann, who topped his previous career-best in points by three was one shy of his career-high in rebounds.
- Dwayne Bacon registered his 25th consecutive double figure performance as the sophomore guard scored 17 points after hitting 6-of-16 from the floor and 5-of-5 at the free throw line. Bacon's double figure streak began on Feb. 17, 2016 against Georgia Tech in Tallahassee.
- Freshman Jonathan Isaac reached double figures in scoring for the ninth time this season and second time in ACC action as he tallied 13 points in 26 minutes. Isaac, who was 4-of-7 from the field and 5-of-6 at the charity stripe, was responsible for eight of Florida State's 39 rebounds, grabbing six on the defensive glass.
- Seminoles took a 48-37 lead into the intermission, marking the eighth time this season and first time in ACC action that Florida State has scored at least 40 points in the opening frame. The most points in the first half (61) came against Nicholls State (Dec. 8, 2016).
- Florida State earned back-to-back victories over ranked teams (11-Virginia, 60-58—Dec. 31) and (21-Virginia Tech, 93-78—Jan. 7) for the first time since downing (6-Duke, 62-59—March 10, 2012) and (4-North Carolina, 83-62—March 11) in the 2012 ACC Tournament.
- The 93-point output marks the sixth time this season that Florida State has topped 90 points in a contest.
- The duo of Jarquez Smith (12 points) and PJ Savoy (11) were vital for the Seminoles as they provided a 35-6 advantage in points off the bench.
